DANIELS SAYS PRESIDENT DEFEATIST, YET DOING ALL HE CAN TO WIN THE FIGHT

Says Secretary Injected Germ Into Navy; Denies Disparagement of Army

By International News Service. Washington, Feb. 10.—Injection of a "defeatist germ" into the navy by Secretary of the Navy Daniels was charged today by Admiral Sims before the Senate sub-committee investigating medal awards.

"What is the use of spending millions for battleships if you are going to offer special awards for the officers who sink them?" Sims asked, speaking of the award of a distinguished service cross by Daniels to Commander Hagley, who lost his ship, Hagley, in a brother-in-law of Daniels.

Sims denied statements attributed by Daniels to Representative Lyness of South Carolina, that he (Sims) desired to see the end of the war.

PLAN FORMATION OF THIRD PARTY

Hopkins, Record and Pinchot Hope to Split Liberal and Reactionary Forces

By International News Service. Chicago, Feb. 10.—The liberal and reactionary forces of the country are to be split into two camps by a third party.

Plans for the formation of the new party were announced here today by A. Hopkins, chairman of the national executive committee of the party, who is to have, active support of the creation of the party, and who is to be joined here tomorrow by George L. Record and Anne Pinchot, other leaders of the movement.

Before the end of the week, Hopkins expects to enlist the support of some of the "liberal" or "radical" bodies which will hold conference in the Middle West.

The "Non-Partisan League, Farmers' Union" and the "United Farmers of America" are the new labor party, the single taxers and many others, according to Hopkins, are to be gathered into the ranks of the new party.

It will be a second party, not a third party, Hopkins said. The party will be a party of the future, not a party of the past. It will be a party based upon a new economic system.

Lorain Sues to Stop Sox Sale

BASEBALL CASE GOES TO COURT

Former Owner of Club Seeks to Recover $262,000 Alleged Due

Joseph J. Lorain, former owner of the Red Sox, is in court today collecting $262,000 which he claims H. H. Frazee and H. J. Ward owe him on a note, today filed a bill in equity to prevent their disposing of the Red Sox. The bill asks for an injunction and a special master to hear the issue involved and to sell at public auction the baseball club.

The bill is returnable on Monday, but even though Frazee were before court today, it would not be until Monday that the case could be heard.

WILSON TO ACT TO STOP STRIKE

Former Heir to German Throne Ready to Be Tried in Place of Army Chiefs

By International News Service. Washington, Feb. 10.—President Wilson today received a cablegram from the former Crown Prince William of Germany announcing that he is willing to stand trial instead of some of the German officers who were called for by the allies.

The cablegram was dispatched from Wieringen and declared that if the allies demanded a "victim," the Crown Prince was willing to be that victim, rather than many of the former German officers, whose names were mentioned in the allies' list of war guilty.

The tone of the cablegram was entirely one of martyrdom, it was learned.

The ex-Crown Prince was quoted as saying that "The consequences to all of Europe would be immeasurable if the demand of the allies for the listed German officers were carried into effect."

The tone of the cablegram was entirely one of martyrdom, it was learned.

Moves to Restore Silver's Old Ratio

By International News Service. Washington, Feb. 10.—"An establishment of the present ratio between silver and gold as a means of stabilizing the value of international exchange, suggested in the Senate this afternoon by Senator Thomas, Democrat of Colorado."

"Those most unwilling to be reluctant to accept it must have perceived in the slow, but steadily accelerating rise in silver values throughout the war, in spite of prodigious efforts to prevent it, that the recurrence of the historic equilibrium between gold and silver was as certain as the tide," Senator Thomas said. "That equilibrium has been reached and passed. The only way to prevent the silver dollar from falling to its old value is to raise the silver dollar to its old value."

WORKING DURING STRIKE

New York, Feb. 10.—The New England coal-mining strike, which has paralyzed the distribution of coal in the district, admits that the present situation is worse than it was during the miners' strike. The promise to improve output in transportation has been recovered from the strike imposed by the blizzard.

The order giving bituminous coal the right of way over all other commodities, including petroleum, made promises to help, but railroad officials are not hopeful that a normal movement of freight cars will be in effect for several days.

IRISH SERVICE IMPROVED

In the morning a corps of volunteers are handling every effort to "dig" the tracks out from their masses of snow.

Blockade men took two truckloads of food and medicine to Cape Cod, which was nearly stranded by the blizzard. The food was taken to the Cape by a small boat, which was nearly stranded by the blizzard.

Filene's—VALUE? yes, NEW, too!

Where looking incurs no obligation to buy—The first Georgette doublet blouses, $5.75

The doublet has made the blouse as important as the dress. It is the most becoming blouse one can wear. It is surprising, isn't it, to find lovely blouses like this at $5.75, when one stops to consider the price of Georgette and the prevailing high labor cost?

The blouses are blouse, white, flesh and navy (blouse is a particularly good suit shade because it blends in with almost every dark color), and the embroidery, repeated in back, is a silk design in navy with a tiny thread of red here and there. The Georgette wash goes around the back before it ties at the side.

"Two-blouse" doublets, $7.50

At $7.50, "two-blouse" embroidered doublets, contrasting colors in over-blouses, are just as rich in value as the $5.75 doublets. Blouse with navy, blouse with League blue, all navy blue.

(Filene's—mail orders filled—fifth floor).

At $7.50, "two-blouse" embroidered doublets, contrasting colors in over-blouses, are just as rich in value as the $5.75 doublets. Blouse with navy, blouse with League blue, all navy blue.

WILKIE BARD HEADS BILL AT KEITH'S

Wilkie Bard, London music hall artiste and entertainer, extraordinary, took a large audience by storm in a screamingly funny conception of money characters at Keith's. These characters were seen chiefly under the sheet of a stage curtain, woman, who may be as clever, but not as good as Bard's own impersonation, as a night watchman in a "Lullaby" through the night.

LETTY FULL OF BRILLIANT COMEDY

Charlotte Greenwood is the whole show at the Majestic Theatre, who also opened her Boston engagement at Anna Nichols' new comedy, "Lullaby Clock," the story of a woman who is a "lullaby" show, and the success of the comedy is due to her. The production is especially good in every detail, full of snip and snarl, and is a comedy of the first order.

LAUDER HERE! WITH NEW SONGS

Harry Lauder—now Sir Harry Lauder—living here tonight at the Boston Opera House has just opened his last visit to Boston, and he has brought with him a new song, "The Rose of the South," which he has written for the occasion.

New Hair Growth After BALDNESS

HAIR GROWN ON MR. BRITAIN'S BALD HEAD BY INDIAN'S MYSTERY HAIR GROWER

How YOU MAY Grow YOUR Hair

Indians' Secret of Hair Growth

At a time when I had been discouraged at the loss of my hair, I was told by a friend that I should use the Indian's Hair Grower. I did so, and in a short time my hair began to grow again. I am now as well as ever, and my hair is as thick as ever.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Every Druggist has Doan's, 60c a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Manufacturing Chemists, Buffalo, N. Y.

Has Grip Left You a Backache?

THERE'S surely some good reason for that lame, aching back. Likely it's your kidneys. Your kidneys need help occasionally just as your bowels need help. And it's mighty poor policy to neglect the slightest kidney weakness. A cold, chill or strain oftentimes congests the kidneys and slows them up. Poisons accumulate in the system and many mysterious aches and pains result. That may be the reason for that dull, nagging backache, those sharp, sudden pains and that tired, worn-out feeling. You may have headaches and dizzy spells, too, with perhaps, some annoying bladder irregularity. You owe it to yourself to get well and to stay well. Neglect may lead to gravel, dropsy or Bright's disease. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. They have helped many Boston people and should help you. Ask your neighbor!

These are Boston Cases:

West Fourth St. (South Boston)
Patrick A. Egan, 448 W. Fourth St., S. Boston, says: "My kidneys were in bad shape and my back ached terribly. I could hardly do any work, and I was often sick. I tried many remedies, but nothing helped. I then tried Doan's Kidney Pills, and in a short time my back began to feel better. I am now as well as ever, and my back is as strong as ever."

Dover Street
Mrs. Wm. P. Davis, 448 Dover St., says: "I can hardly describe the misery which I suffered from backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble. Mornings I could hardly get out of bed because of the sharp pains in the small of my back, and it took me a long time to get up. I then tried Doan's Kidney Pills, and in a short time my back began to feel better. I am now as well as ever, and my back is as strong as ever."

Medford Court
John Kelley, 2 Medford Court, says: "I have Doan's Kidney Pills on hand all the time, and I know they are all that is claimed for them. My kidneys were in bad shape, and I was often sick. I then tried Doan's Kidney Pills, and in a short time my back began to feel better. I am now as well as ever, and my back is as strong as ever."

Warren Avenue
Mrs. E. E. Myers, 49 Warren Ave., says: "I suffered from dull, nagging backache and felt very tired and out. My work was a burden to me, and I didn't feel like going up or down stairs. My kidneys distressed me by their irregular action, too. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills strengthened my back and kidneys, and I consider them a good remedy."

Trenton St. (East Boston)
Herbert E. Irving, 143 Trenton St., East Boston, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are the best remedy I have ever used for kidney trouble. Often my kidneys got out of fix, and I was so sore and lame I could hardly get out of my bed. My back ached and pained, and my kidneys didn't act right at all. A couple of boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills relieved all the soreness and aching in my back and put my kidneys in good order. I often recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

It Is Mayor's Right and Duty to Receive De Valera

New York, February 9, 1920.

Editor in Charge, Boston American:

Understand Mayor Peters of Boston has refused to receive President De Valera. Please make editorials in morning and evening papers tomorrow severely criticizing Mayor Peters for this attitude. President De Valera is a gentleman of great ability and exceptional accomplishments. He has been received officially all over this country from San Francisco to New York, both on account of his personal qualities and on account of the cause of liberty and democracy for which he stands and in which America believes.

Mayor Peters of Boston has as much legal right to receive President De Valera as Mayor Hylan of New York, Mayor Rolph of San Francisco, Mayor Thompson of Chicago or any other Mayor of any of the great cities who have received him. In fact, Mayor Peters has not only the legal right but a moral duty to perform to his constituents, for there are an enormously large number of splendidly loyal American citizens in Boston who are of Irish descent and because of their genuine Americanism sympathize with Ireland's struggle for liberty and democracy as they sympathize with the efforts of all oppressed people throughout the world to free themselves from tyranny.

Boston, too, was the place where the historic beginning of our own fight to free ourselves from oppression and where the Boston tea party emptied the tea into the sea rather than pay the intolerable taxes which England had imposed upon this country. How can the birthplace of our own freedom refuse to recognize the representative of a young republic also endeavoring to free itself from English misrule? Please use text of this telegram in connection with editorials in both papers tomorrow.

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST.

Boston Gas Co. Asks for Rate Increase Amounting to Million a Year

What is the matter with the city government? Why did it not follow up its opposition to the request of the gas company for permission to increase its price?

It is said that experts are expensive and these cost a great deal. Indeed they do. But the companies feel equal to pay their part of the litigation and it is a little strange that the great city of Boston finds so much apparent difficulty in paying its share of the investigation.

Under any circumstances no amount that is at all likely to be spent would be wasted because any money at all in the contest against the company would benefit the people of Boston so much more than any possible expense, that real economy, real business judgment, real profit is to be found in pushing the investigation and in insisting upon a denial to the company of the right further to raise their prices.

More Graft in Private Than in Public Corporations

The chairman of the Finance Commission in the Boston Sunday Advertiser, February 1, urged our citizens to take more interest in their city affairs. He made the point that our citizens ought to take such an interest because our citizens were like the stockholders of a great corporation and, in fact, the city was a great corporation, greater than any other corporation in the city and that our citizens ought to consider themselves important stockholders.

There is a naive in the assumption of Mr. Flynn and others like him, that our citizens do not pay as much attention to our civic duties as the stockholders in our private corporations. By what sort of legend and witchery the private corporations have made people of intelligence like Mr. Flynn believe that they are more "really" run than the public business, we have never been able to discover. But, however the popular misconception may be, it is nevertheless the truth, the plain truth, that the stockholders of our big corporations pay far less attention to the business of their corporation than the most neglectful body of citizens of any city in America.

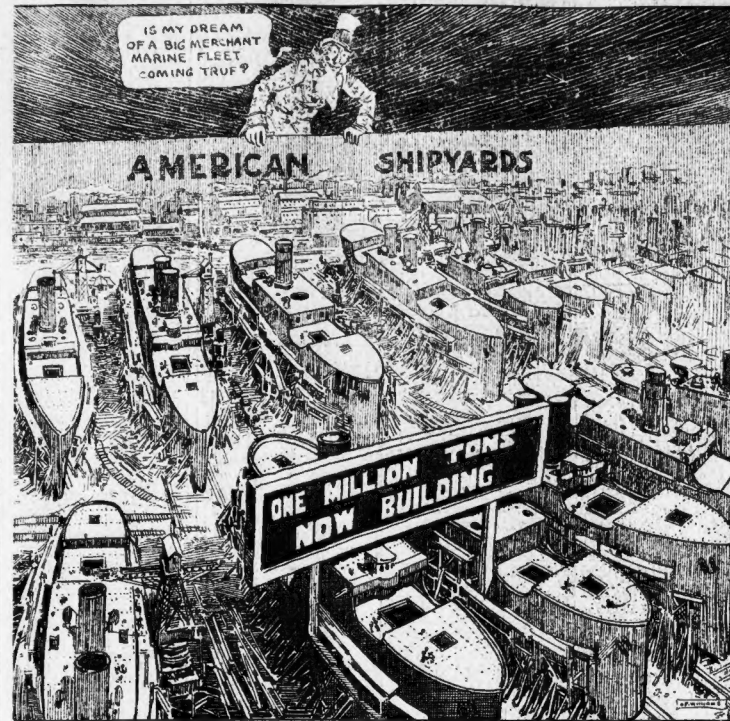

What interest does a railroad stockholder take in his railroad? Why is he robbed day in and day out by the Mayor, Board of Aldermen and the City Council called president and directors? Why does nearly every railroad in America periodically go bankrupt and the stockholders find themselves bankrupted, too? It is because the stockholder does not pay any attention to his business. It is because he does not vote. It is because he sends proxies to those in power.

It is because he assumes that opposition to those in power is "ad form" on the part of those more alive and interested than they are. What American citizen would think of sending his proxy to vote for him without any instructions or any information concerning the way his vote is to be cast at the polls?

Our great private corporations are run with far more neglect on the part of their stockholders and owners than our cities are neglected by the citizens and it follows naturally enough that there is more graft in private corporations than there is in the public corporations like our cities. The only reason that we believe that there is more graft in our cities is that our citizens are divided into political parties and have to wash their dirty linen in the public eye and the political opponent is always interested in making a bad matter worse and in exaggerating the fault of those in power.

On the other hand, in a private corporation there is scarcely ever any opposition among the stockholders, and when there is it is from a crowd who are probably just as bad as the crowd they are opposing. The opposition by the outs against the ins in a great public service corporation reminds us very much of what a little girl said to another little girl whom she observed making some mud pie. "Get out of that, you dirty little thing. I want to do that myself." That kind of opposition never dares to make a fight in open for it dreads not throw stones with all its own glass windows. It makes its fight behind closed doors. It is a blind fight for proxies and that side wins which is able to get the most proxies or buy the most stock. Hence, you never hear of graft in the railroads until some great railroad man dies and leaves millions which we know he never could have earned honestly or until the railroad becomes bankrupt and an investigation discloses one-hundredth part of the dishonesty which caused the failure.

But we do not mean to discourage Mr. Flynn in his attempt to arouse our citizens to a greater interest in the city. They do not take enough interest. Ways might be devised for arousing greater interest, though we are doubtful of Mr. Flynn's suggested expedient. We do not want plural voting in this country. Property is not the basis of representation in this country and never will be. But it ought to be possible for a man whose business and most of his waking hours and whose interests are in a particular place to elect that place as his legal residence so that he may vote there even though he may sleep with his family somewhere else.

When the women vote it ought to be possible for a man who works in Boston to vote in Boston if he so chooses, while his wife votes in the place where she lives and where her neighbors are and where her children go to school.

DO YOUR CHILDREN RUN TO MEET YOU?

There isn't anything wrong about the man whose children have their noses flattened against the window pane a half hour before he is due.

Fathers, how do your children act when you come home?

Do your children sneak away from you when you arrive who have a prey to their eyes with your daughters?

If your children are not glad when you return you are not the right sort of father.

Does all romping and laughter cease when you come home? Something is wrong.

Your children should look upon your return as the happiest moment in the day, and where there is a wife to look happy, too, and give you a welcome it shows you are a good-fellow husband and the right kind of a father.

Have your eyes open tonight for the kind of reception you get at home.

The awakening may shock you, but if you profit by it you may find it has been a good thing for you.

WHEN YOUR WIFE GOES TO THE MOVIES.

Mr. Married Man, do you complain because your wife goes down town so often afternoons?

The next time you have such a thought just ask yourself what you would do if you were in her place.

Do you know how often you complain about being tired or that you cannot stand the sort of amusement she enjoys when she asks you to go somewhere with her in her evenings?

What do you expect of your wife?

Day after day in hours, evening after evening home, is not conducive to health, mental or physical.

You can meet some of your old cronies two or three times a week, and you seem to be in no more hurry than your wife to see mine and sit alone through the evenings till you return.

Now, old man, remember the square deal includes your wife. If you had to stay home you would raise a great howl if she went out nights.

Then play fair with her, and do not complain when she tries to get a little fun out of life by going to the movies or some place else she enjoys.

Y^e TOWNE GOSSIP

By K. C. B.

I WAS getting my hair cut.

IF I'D been the barber.

IN A barber shop.

IF I HAD been mad.

AND AT the next chair.

BECAUSE I saw how it is.

JUST TO hold a kid.

WAS A red-headed barber.

WHEN HE'S squirming around.

WITH A red face.

AND HE looked Irish.

AND I knew very well.

HOW HARD it must be.

TO CUT his hair.

WHEN HE wouldn't keep still.

AND AFTER a while.

I think with substantial truth, that alcohol is most certainly, next to water, the most valuable of all chemicals.

THE BARBER looked over.

TO WHERE I sat.

AND SO that he'd know.

I WAS sorry for him.

I SMILED.

AND ALL he did

WAS TO wink back at me.

AND TAKE the kid's head.

AND TWIST it around.

AND THEN my barber.

TOOK MY hand.

IN BOTH his hands.

AND GAVE it a twist.

SO IT nearly came off.

AND SAID.

"IF YOU don't quit rubbering.

"AND LOOKING around.

"I CAN'T cut your hair."

THE kid heard him.

AND SMILED at my barber.

AND WENT right on rubbering.

WHILE I sat still.

WHERE THE barber put it.

AND THEN forgot.

AND RUBBER around

AND BECAUSE the barber.

WAS RED in the face.

ALL OF the time.

I COULDN'T tell

HOW MAD he was.

BUT I was sure.

HE WAS very mad.

BECAUSE THE way I felt.

I THANK YOU.

A TALK ON ALCOHOL AND ITS USES

By Garrett P. Serviss

Copyright, 1920

"A certain hat all foods contain a certain amount of alcohol: B claims that no foods contain alcohol except alcohol beverages" and that the sugar in ordinary foods will not turn to alcohol after entering the normal body. Please state the facts.

THESE is no alcohol in any ordinary food. Alcohol can be formed from sugar and starch only through the peculiar process called fermentation, which requires the presence and action of a special kind of living organisms, like those composing yeast. These organisms do not exist in the normal animal body.

Fruit juices exposed to the air, however, may ferment and produce alcohol, because the germs of the fermenting organisms exist in the atmosphere. The elements from which alcohol is formed occur everywhere in organic as well as inorganic substances, but they cannot be combined to make alcohol except under particular circumstances. These elements are carbon, oxygen and hydrogen.

Action of Sugar

When sugar, which is composed of these three elements combined in certain proportions, is acted upon by the fermenting organisms of yeast, its molecules are broken apart and recombined in different proportions, forming, now, two substances, both entirely unlike the original sugar, viz. carbon dioxide, which is a gas, and alcohol, which is a liquid.

This liquid is so volatile, so inflammable, so subtle, and, in its effects, so potent, and through the nervous system and the bodily functions, so insinuating, perfidious and sometimes diabolical, that man has always felt it necessary to be on his guard against it, as against a smiling enemy.

The dark, dimly, apparently cold, but secretly piercing, hot fumes with which alcohol burns and the unnatural odor that it gives forth, go well with its age-long reputation as an unmitigated agent of evil and ally of madness and crime.

Founded on Fact

These statements, which may appear prejudiced, are neither unscientific nor unhistoric, nor, on the other hand, are they called for by any sympathy with legislation that deprives men at once of personal liberty and of moral self-government. They are a part of the record of alcohol in contact with human life, a record that never should be lost sight of. For there is another part which has less to do with the atomistic and reasoning men. It has been said, and I think with substantial truth, that alcohol is most certainly, next to water, the most valuable of all chemicals.

Organized labor, entering politics, "will elect true and tried friends of the trade union movement."

England organized labor is a gigantic force in politics. In America it is not. At the election day the crowds divide, following party lines. Each party prepares a platform, saying it is the only real friend labor ever had. Half the labor vote goes to the one, the other. The politicians laugh, well they may.

The statement of union men that they will elect true and tried friends of labor labor should cause them to ask themselves some questions.

How does a man set true and tried friends? He should keep them by showing that he appreciates friendship, by proving that he does not forget tomorrow the kindness of today.

Point-to-point in public affairs, for whom union labor is really doing anything?

The story of the last fighting friend of the unions in this country, as everybody knows, is Samuel Gompers. He was a friend of union labor in fighting Gompers' vicious tongue.

To have "true and tried" friends, you must do something to deserve them.

Union men know, perhaps, and if they don't know, this writer can tell them, that in every election the politicians say to the newspaper men, "Don't pay any attention to union labor. It doesn't count in politics. It is with you one day, and knifes you the next. We hang them a little jolly in the platform and let it go at that."

New York and other cities and hundreds of towns are buried in snow. Transportation stopped, workmen idle. Every one is surprised and marvels at the intelligent American government, though it never happened before. This would be especially so on the Boston, not in the latitude of New York or Chicago.

The hundreds of "lacks" owned by the government and telegraph lines clear away and melt in New York city is a day. But this world-wide co-operation between national and local governments, which does not exist. The snow would melt in a week, with the necessary red tape was being unwound.

The Aspinet Chronicle points out that in the General State Penitentiary nearly one-half of all the prisoners are men convicted of killing or trying to kill themselves.

1,004 men are in the prison service life sentenced Whittier, convicted of murder, 236 convicted of manslaughter, 216 convicted of arson, 216 convicted of conspiracy to commit murder.

The mark of the criminal is no tendency to disappear. Such statistics should be carefully preserved. They will be valuable to historians in the future, trying to form an estimate of our actual civilization.

Selfishness and Progress
Alcohol and Flying
Labor and Politics
The Mark of Cain

Weakness, vanity, self-indulgence, and selfishness in men often cause progress.

The Roman Emperor had his marble baths for his own delight, hence the enamel bath in every little flat.

The Emperor wanted for that bath pure water from the upland. That started the aqueduct systems that now supply the top floors of tenement houses.

Young gentlemen with nothing to do but spend money were in a terrible hurry to go somewhere, although it did not in the least matter whether they went or not. Money that they would otherwise have wasted was used to build the first expensive automobiles, hence the farmers' and business men's cheap cars.

Poet's experiments in transmutation of metals, trying to manufacture gold, resulted in the most valuable chemical discoveries.

Now man's indignant thirst, demanding something more exciting than plain water, with countries, to the development of the powerful flying machine.

America is the land of prohibition and virtue. It is the nation by many alcoholic oaths. After all, they have a regular flying machine route from New York to Havana. Fast trains from San Francisco, Chicago, New York to Key West, then a short flight and no prohibition.

A twenty-million dollar hotel is being built near Havana to take care of the crowd. Soon fast passenger ships, such as were formerly used in the Mediterranean trade, will run from New York to Havana in the winter and a little later the fast flying machine, making the round trip in a few hours, will travel between the island of Cuba and Long Island in about an hour.

There will hurry on the day of passenger flying.

Cuba before long will be the land flowing with alcohol and money. Scores of millions of gallons of whiskey have already gone there.
